"There's a tramp at the door, Mr. Hyde, and he says he ain't had nothin' to eat for six days."

"Fetch him in," said the doctor, "If we can find out how he does it, we can run the paper for another week."—Exchange.

PROF. INGRAM RESIGNS

The people of this section will learn with general regret that Prof. J. C. Ingram has resigned his position as principal of the Sylva Collegiate Institute, to take effect at the end of the present school term.

During his incumbency as principal of the Baptist school here Prof. Ingram has been entirely successful in his work and the school and community can ill afford to lose him.

Prof. Ingram will go to his home in Montgomery County where he will become a farmer.

HIGH SCHOOL CONTESTS

The preliminary contests of the Sylva High school for the purpose of selecting representatives to represent the Sylva School at the High School Meet of the Western division of North Carolina, to be held at Marion today, were held last week, and were most creditable to the school and community.

The contests resulted in the selection of the following representatives: Declamation, Lawrence Kever; Recitation, Lena Ashe; essay, Alice Gray; spelling, Janie Coward.

The Philathea class of the Baptist Sunday school held their regular business meeting Tuesday night and elected a secretary to take the place of Miss Pittman, who has so efficiently held the position during her sojourn here, and also an assistant teacher and secretary to take the place of Miss Powers, whose services in the Philathea work have been of great value to the class. A delegate to the Baraca-Philathea State Convention at Durham was appointed. A vice president was also elected.

THE SYLVA PHARMACY'S MAMMOTH CONTEST ASSUMES VAST PROPORTIONS

Any One May Enter.

It has been just three weeks since the Sylva Pharmacy has announced their great voting contest and if there is any section of the territory in which this offer holds good, into which this fact has not penetrated. The Sylva Pharmacy has yet to hear of it. The number of nominations received are fairly representative of all the districts covered. The list of names published will be found to embrace some very active, energetic, wide-awake people in the territory in which The Sylva Pharmacy is so well and favorably known.

The vim and force and vigor with which interested persons are taking hold of this contest is ample evidence that the race is to be one of the most-interesting ever witnessed in this or any other section of the country. It is so easy to compete for the great list of prizes. Conditions have been simplified so that nothing impossible or even difficult is asked of candidates. There are five great prizes to be distributed, and you or your friend have every opportunity to win one of these prizes if you will only put forth a little energy and show the proper spirit.

In soliciting business or by selling goods for the Sylva Pharmacy you have nothing to apologize for; nothing to be ashamed of. Your effort is a clean cut exchange of the biggest dollar's worth of value ever wrapped up. These conditions form the great opportunity of the contestants in this race.

As the full force and scope of the contest becomes thoroughly understood, enthusiasm will increase in all sections of the district covered. The prizes are so desirable, the opportunities for winning so numerous, that each day will witness greater efforts made by the people who properly appreciate this magnificent offer. It costs nothing to make the effort for one of the prizes. The field is comparatively fresh, and there are no confusing details about securing the votes.

There is nothing small about such a contest as this. It is a mammoth project and will be conducted along such lines, and in the very size of the race lies the opportunity for so many people to win. Remember there is no guess work about it. The prize is before you. The pianos upon which the due bills apply are exact duplicates of this in quality, finish, in every detail. You know exactly what you are going to win. Results depend entirely upon yourself. A little energy will win you a prize.

But dallying with the proposition will not accomplish it. There is no instant force and energy save in the present moment, and planning will win nothing. You must start. The earlier you start the better the opportunities, the less the opposition which will be encountered. Candidates will find many people who trade with the Sylva Pharmacy. Go out and clinch their resolutions while this contest is on and thereby get for yourself votes for one of these great prizes.
